Cooley's Hits!

Anyone who has ever visited Cooley High School or who knows the Cooley Family will readily agree that the Cooley Family tree is star-studded. This year's productions are no exception; they measure up to Cooley's illustrious past.

One of the star productions of '85 is Christienne Warren, pictured right, along with Mr. Fred Martin, Deputy Mayor of the City of Detroit and Dr. Arthur Jefferson, Superintendent of Schools. Christie was named Student Mayor of the City of Detroit at a ceremonial luncheon held at the Veterans' Memorial Building. Christie was selected on the basis of an essay she wrote, winning over contestants from every high school in the city.

Ken Harris is measured for his cap and gown by William Gilmore while Donna Jones "struts her stuff" in the annual spring fashion show.

Women's Basketball

Below: Star Sharon Singletary shows that aggressive form that won her praise, while Robin Richardson keeps a hold on the ball. Joycelyn Olive jumps into the air.

Give a Yell for a Cooley Team!

The kicks are high; the yells are loud; and the outfits are snappy. It sounds like a perfect description of that energetic Cooley High School cheer team. Supporting the players and leading the spectators in cheering are a part of the duties that the young people on the cheer team execute so well.

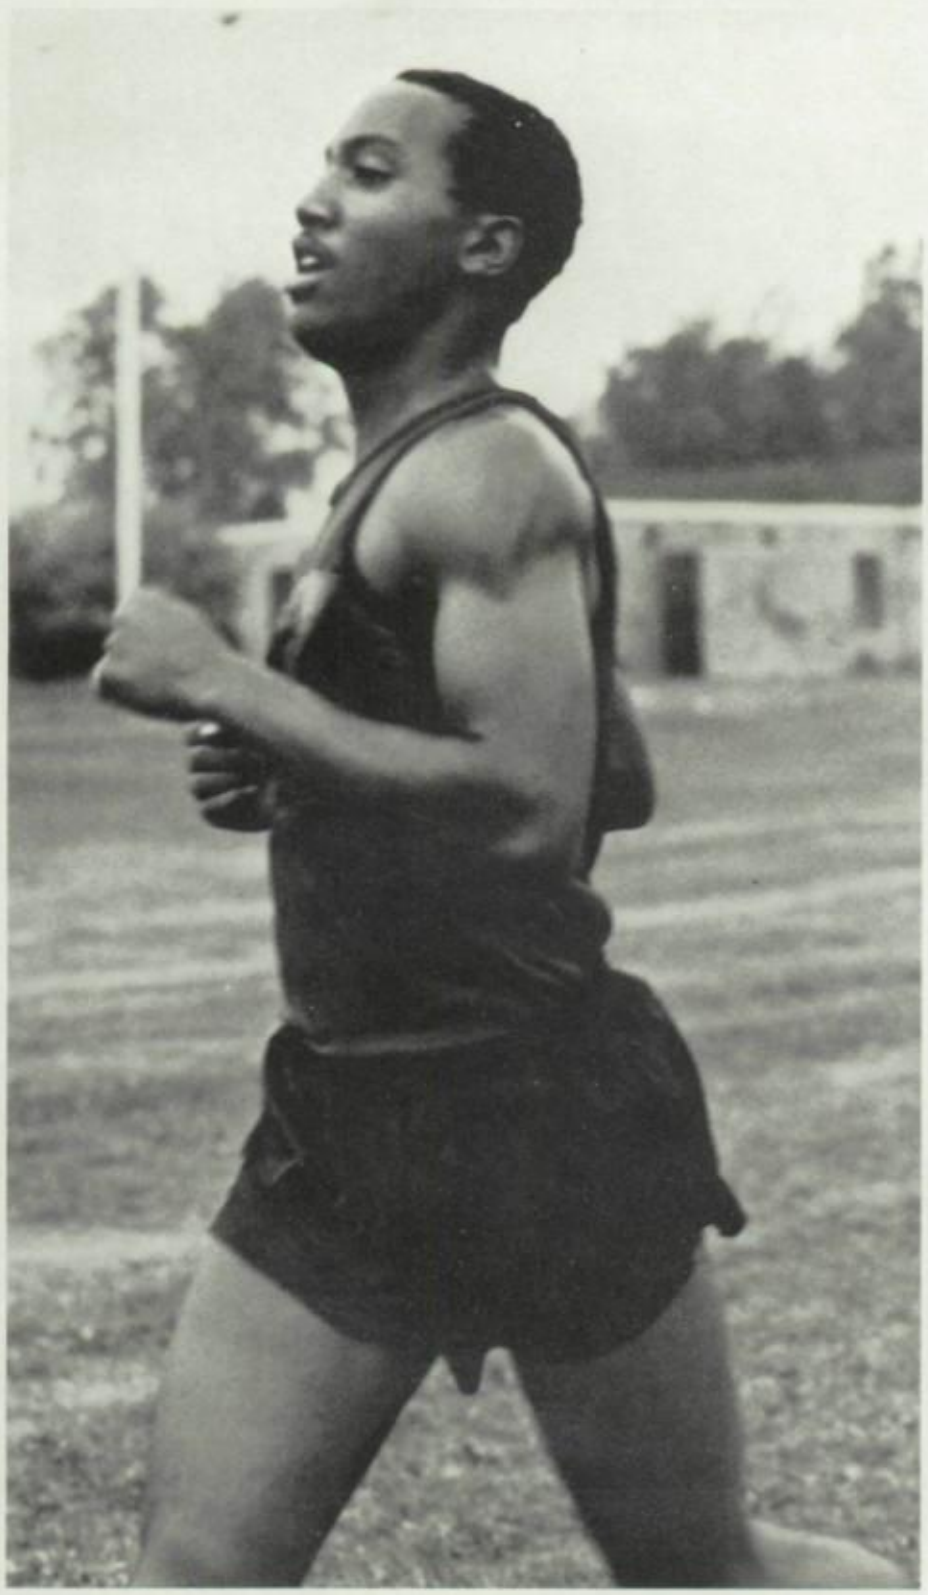
Cross Country

Cooley — Home of the Westside Track and Field Champions!



Stepping into the inner circle were the outstanding men of the Cooley High School Track and Field Teams. Coach L. Evans successfully led the team to the Westside Championship. The depth and strength of the team helped the team pile up those winning points. Some of the young men who participated on these teams were David Lindsay, George Gradner, Earl Hunt, John Cunningham, Douglas Nelson, Steven Hall, Kenneth Martin, Barrett Dorris, Tyrone Granberry, and Eric Cox.

Women's Tennis

Men's Golf

The out of doors exercise appealed to Terrence Devezin and William Holiday, Jr. They enjoyed getting their exercise and participating on the Golf Team. Looking to a season in '86 that appeals to more players, Mr. C. Hunter is mapping out strategies to attract golf players.

Pommerettes Add Sparkle!

The Pommerettes never failed to bring the crowd to its feet. Those high stepping young ladies have their own special brand of excitement and verve. The countless hours of practice helped them to develop that exciting format. Mr. G. Jenkins was the adviser to encourage these young ladies to get their routines perfect.

Coming back to school in the fall is made a little easier because the Cooley Family realizes fall brings football. The football team again provided a season of thrills. The men of the gridiron took to the field and frequently brought home the winning score. Coach Thomas developed the plays and was ably assisted by Coach Marrs.

Row 2: Mrs. Gardner, Dante Elmore, Dirk Scott, Claude Tiller, Jeff Manson, Kevin Brown, Nard Denson. Row 3: Gregory Jackson, Michael Sanders, Antoine Chappell, Willie Henderson.

Attention! Attention! Important Announcements Follow:

The Cooley High School Family is kept informed of the latest accomplishments of the Cooley Family by the P.A. announcers, under the direction of Mrs. R. Stephens. The announcers present the schedules and meetings of the various clubs and teams here at Cooley. In addition, there have been several students who have won acclaim in many areas. The accomplishments of these students are shared with the Cooley Family through the P.A. announcements. We all look forward to the friendly gong drawing our attention to the daily announcements.

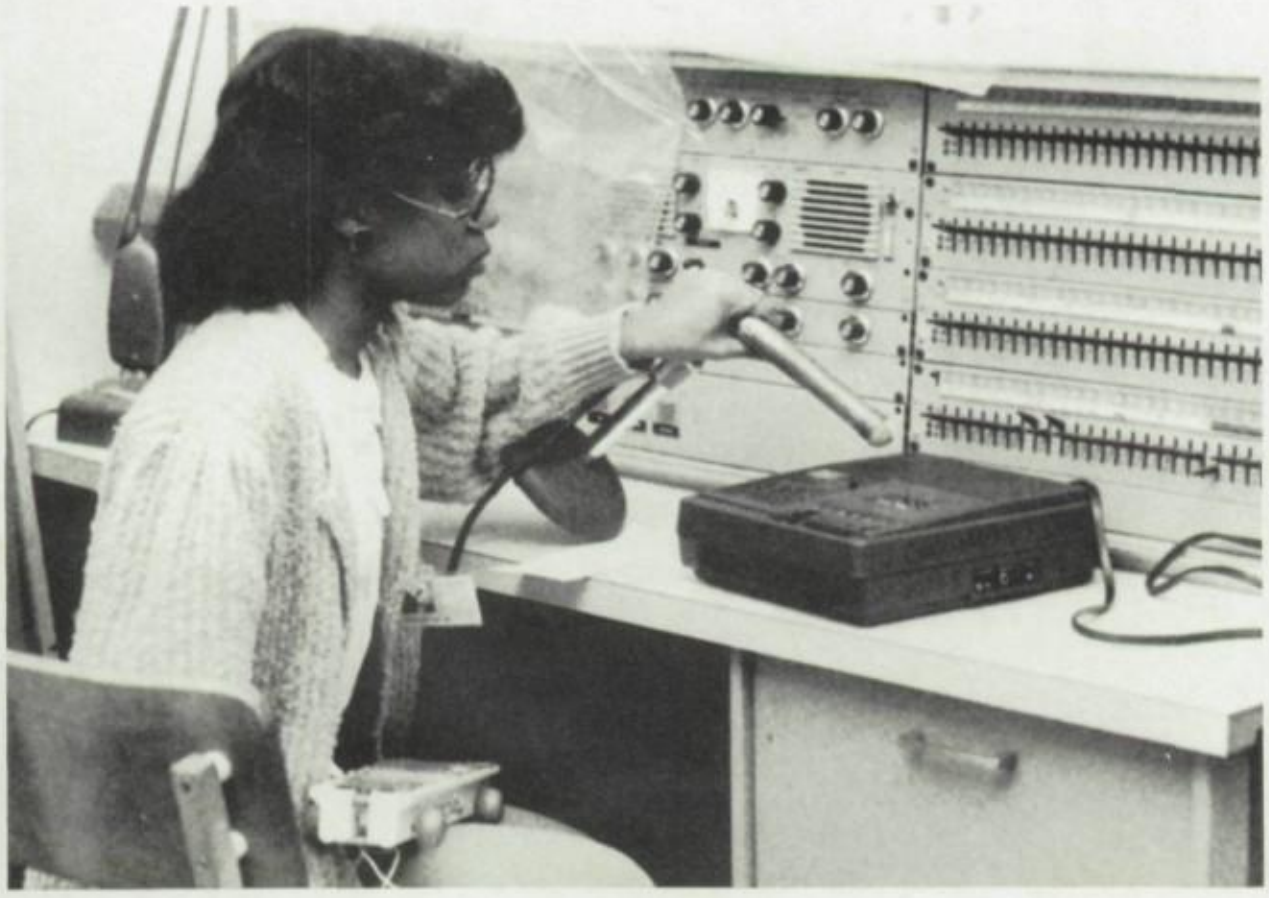
Pennie Rainer is at the controls using our media resources to enhance the P.A. announcements.



Drama Club Sets the Stage

It is said that there is a bit of a performer in each of us. Ms. E. Harcourt, drama coach, helps the Drama Club bring out the Thespian skills within the group. Actors from the Attic Theatre presented several theatre-in-the-round sketches to the students. To the pleasure of a selected audience, the Drama Club presented a delightful Christmas musical, which was shared with the residents of Northwest Care Facility. Mrs. M. Hall's class joined in with cheer and fruit baskets. Pictured, Left to Right, Row 1: J. Morris, G. LaMar, M. Jackson, C. Robinson, S. Hartman, T. Thrower. Row 2: S. Smith, C. Paige, B. Pearson, K. Harrison, A. Ary, A. Burks. Row 3: R. Mackey, W. Bush, C. Ragland, K. Calloway, P. Jackson.

DECA: Club of Champions

Cooley High School has a long history of bringing home the prizes in Distributive Education competitions. This year was no exception. Mrs. P. Trotter again led the Cooley students to a long list of trophies and medals. In addition, the DECA students run a well-stocked, pleasant store for the con-venience of the Cooley students.

The conference over the counter elicits smiles all around.

Every year the DECA students, under the tutelage of Mrs. Trotter, walk off with most of the awards and trophies in their competitions. 1985 was no exception to their record. The DECA students from Cooley garnered the lion's share once again this year, qualifying them to be considered as one of the stellar groups on CHS's program.

Those students who were outstanding participants in the DECA competitions are: Pamela Braxton, LaCherryn LaVant, Tammy Thomas. All of these students were first place winners in their respective areas. Deidre Green, Rosalind Ballard, William Steward, Waymon Lovett, Leslie Hines, Rita Johnson, Anthony Neal, Rhonda Hall, Brian Alston, Rita Johnson, and Hollis Anderson were all second place winners. Taking third place honors were: William Stewart, Rhonda Hall, Bryan Alston, Rita Johnson and Hollis Anderson, Michelle Jackson, Robin Brown, Timothy Campbell. Musicians All!

The talent abounds in Cooley's music students. Each year the Cooley Family is treated to musical delights by the vocal music groups, under the direction of Ms. J. Allen, and the instrumental music groups, directed by Mr. R. Yorke.

The lovely ladies at the right sound as lovely as they look in one of the highlights of the Spring Concert. Out of camera range, Ms. Allen encourages the students to do their best.

Mr. Yorke carries instrumental music students through their preparations. All the practice is worthwhile when those students perform in full uniform playing as harmoniously as they look.

The young men and young women involved in the Cooley ROTC program are extremely fortunate. The discipline that they learn will hold them in good stead throughout their lives. It's always a pleasure to see the cadets go through their paces. Capturing '85 in the Castellan

Camera and notebook in hand, the yearbook staff is frequently seen walking around the Cooley halls trying to capture the Cooley for The Castellan. It isn't easy! Everyone becomes a ham the minute a camera is pulled out. Yet, it's not all work.

Under the direction of Mrs. Robinson, the staff managed to scurry about and be in on most of the action. Working with a small staff, the yearbook put feelers out to find out what was going on at Cooley on a regular basis.

Seated Are: Lorri Tanner, Kim Foster, and Carolyn Anderson. Standing Are: Sonyia Pruiett, Mrs. Robinson, and Sherri Cannon. Carolyn Anderson and Sherri Cannon horse it up while out on assignment.

TAB Club Remains Busy

The Technical and Business Club always attracts a large and active membership. These students, interested in pursuing a career in business and industry, plan field trips, speakers, and a generous portion of fun. Mr. Mitchell serves as the club adviser.

Administrators Mastermind the Production

No matter the industry or service, the quality of the product is dependent upon the quality of the leadership. Cooley High School is no exception. The Cooley Family is fortunate to have, newly appointed to Colley, Mr. George Q. Williams as Principal. Mr. Williams comes to Cooley after over a decade as principal at another Detroit high school. He brings with him a wealth of experience as he continues leading and directing Cooley in its quest for excellence. Assisting Mr. Williams are Mr. Jacob Dupree, Mrs. Mamie Humphrey, and Mr. David Salisbury. Mr. Ronald Jones, also pictured below, serves as Dean of Attendance.

Wedding Bells!

As a part of the Family Living curriculum, students plan and execute a major project. This year, under Mrs. H. Merritt's instruction, the students planned to the finest detail a wedding. The ceremony, which took place during school time was followed by a delicious buffet, prepared and served by other students.

Invitations were extended to several classes to observe and participate in the wedding festivities. Those students who took an active part in the wedding party were: Monica Smith, Dolly Harreld, Paula Moore, Deborah Worthy, Kevin Laury, Charles DeRamus, Theo Degraffenreid, Carlton Wright, and Ronald Calloway. Pictured right are the bridge and groom, Monica Smith and Charles DeRamus.

Verdict: All Are Winners!

The time-honored tradition of the Mock Election was replicated with this graduating class. Like their predecessors, this class enjoyed making fun of itself, and perhaps, permitting the true personalities of some of the graduates to surface. While all of the graduates are winners, some of those who officially took the prizes were pictured on the following pages. It will be fun to look back in years to come to see if any prophesies were actually made in the voting. For a complete list of winners, see page 74.
